

I have received an e-mail from the Indiana Attorney general stating that the FCC may issue regulations superceding Indiana's telephone privacy regulations. Indiana's program is easy to use (on-line registration), and has greatly reduced the unwanted volume of calls in my home. Please don't issue any regulations that would undercut the successful operation of Indiana's program.